Gary Yeager is a second-generation Horseman and Trainer who grew up on the Arabian horse show circuit, showing horses from the age of five and earning his first national wins soon after. Over the past 15 years Gary has expanded his sphere of learning, competing and winning in the disciplines of Dressage, Eventing, Jumping and Carriage Driving. Gary's lighthearted approach to teaching and his ability to make learning fun has made him a sought-after clinician.

Thorsten Zarembowicz's passion is driving horses. After conquering the single horse competition by becoming World Champion in 2010, he successfully trained and competed a pair, which he sold in 2014 so he could commit to being the United States Equestrian Federation Combined Driving Coach. In August, he accompanied three U.S. pony drivers to Germany for the world championships. Thorsten is based at Grand Oaks Resort in Weirsdale during the winter.
